Auctioneer's Note: Nestled at the mouth of Old Castle Creek the historic waterfront Old Castle home was erected sometime around 1721. The current owner Mr. and Mrs. Rick and Catie Hubbard have taken pride in the home and have decorated with period antiques and collectables from the Virginia and Northampton County area. Their collection rivals any other in the Northampton Country area. Rick and Catie have traveled from Virginia to Maine in search of the perfect items for their historical home. From Virginia furniture to local Northampton Co ephemera, maps and documents simply put, this collection has it all. Now they have decided to downsize and sell the estate. It has been years since a collection of this magnitude and historical importance has been offered here locally on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. Allen & Marshall Auctions is pleased to offer this exquisite private collection at a once in a lifetime completely cataloged two-day public auction and cordially invite you to join us for an unforgettable auction event!!
